Monthly NXX Code Request Report of The North American
Numbering Plan Administrator For December 1999

Dear Mr. Waddell:

The North American Numbering Plan Administrator NeuStar, Inc. (formerly Lockheed Martin IMS)¹ ("NANPA"), in its role as the neutral third party administrator under the North American Numbering Plan ("NANP") and in response to a request by the Tennessee Regulatory Authority ("Authority") files the attached monthly reports for December 1999 containing public information regarding the names of telecommunications service providers requesting NXX codes in the 615 and 901 area codes, together with the number of NXX codes requested.

On December 10, 1999, the Authority requested NANPA "regularly report to the Authority the names of telecommunications service providers requesting NXX codes in the 615 and 901 area codes, together with the number of NXX codes requested.”² Pursuant to Federal Communications Commission regulations, NANPA performs its NXX code administration functions in accordance with industry guidelines.³ Pursuant to industry guidelines, NANPA is required to treat as confidential NXX code request information submitted by service providers until the assigned code holder (service provider) inputs the requested NXX into the Routing Data Base System (“RDBS”) and Business Rating Input Database System (“BRIDS”).⁴ After the service provider inputs the information into RDBS and BRIDS, the assignment of the NXX is public information. Generally, the service provider has seven days after the assignment is made to input the assigned NXX code information into RDBS and BRIDS.⁵ Occasionally, service providers may take up to sixty-one days to input this information. During this interval, NANPA cannot provide information regarding NXX code assignments. Denials or suspensions of NXX code requests are not submitted to RDBS / BRIDS.

Attached are lists of the names of telecommunications service providers requesting NXX codes in the 615 and 901 area codes, together with the number of NXX codes requested. Additionally, below is a summary of the NXX activity within the 615 and 901 area codes during the month of December. As listed below, only one out of fifty-one NXX assignments submitted to NANPA during December is not yet entered ² Request to the North American Numbering Plan Administrator to Develop an Industry Voluntary Allocation Plan and to Provide Periodic Reports to the Tennessee Regulatory Authority on NXX Code Requests, In re Area Code Conservation Measures in Tennessee, Docket No. 99-00784 (Dec. 10, 1999). In the December 10 request, the Authority also directed NANPA to report back to the Authority at the first Authority Conference in February 2000 on the Tennessee telecommunications industry’s meeting regarding the development of a voluntary allocation plan for NXX code assignment in the 615 and 901 area codes. Contemporaneously herewith, NANPA is filing a report of the industry meeting and will attend the Authority Conference on February 1, 2000.

⁴ “All information provided on the NXX request form will be considered confidential, with selected information made available publicly only for those fields that must be input to the RDBS and BRIDS. The information placed in the RDBS or BRIDS becomes public upon assignment of the new code in the appropriate routing data base product.” §4.1.6 Central Office Code (NXX) Assignment Guidelines (INC 95-0407-008, January 2000). The Central Office Code (NXX) Assignment Guidelines can be accessed on the Alliance for Telecommunications Industry Solution (“ATIS”) web site located at <<http://www.atis.org/atis/clc/inc/incdocs.htm>>.
